

OPEN AUDITION

for WOLF LULLABY

an original play written by Hilary Bell and directed by Nora Francescani

Produced by the Cabaret Theater

Set in Australia, Wolf Lullaby introduces us to 9-year-old Lizzie, a child whose bids for attention are rapidly becoming dangerous behavior. When a toddler is mysteriously murdered, Lizzie's parents, Warren and Angela, and the police detective on the case, Ray, must each acknowledge their role, genetic or otherwise, in the creation of a killer. We will be casting:

2 Men and 2 Women***

Auditions will be held at the Cabaret Theater, on Suydam and Nichol Ave., Cook/Douglass Campus

Sunday, February 7, 8 PM and Monday, February 8, 8 PM

Call backs will be Tuesday, February 9, 8PM

Final Performances will be March 31, April 1 -3, April 7-10. Cast members will be required to rehearse during Spring Break.

Prepared monologue appreciated; if not, audition materials will be provided

Questions or conflicts? Call Taryn Lennon 729-1792

*The role of nine-year-old Lizzie will be played by an adult (college-age) actor.

Nora Francescani is a Rutgers University doctoral candidate concentrating in contemporary drama and performance.